Seen & Heard Around Murray

Yesterday was our day for errors.

Israel was spelled wrong, we had a picture turned backwards, etc. Some days it just pays to stay in bed.

As we watched Mamie Eisenhower over the past two days during the various ceremonies incident to the funeral of Ike, we could not help but think of the difference between her and Jackie Kennedy.

We have great respect for Mamie.

The little squirrel is still working on that nest.

The price of lumber has doubled in the past 18 months.

We just can't decide who/whom we like best, pretty Miss Cathy Morrison or pretty Miss Dolly Partin.

Now getting back to that picture, reversed. If you put the negative down one way, the picture is correct.

The warrants were issued for the two men and two juveniles after an incident involving Richard Spann and his female companion on the Poor Farm Road on Saturday night.

A hearing for the two juveniles was held in the office of County Judge McCusick on Monday, but was continued until Friday.

Police Sergeant Warren Ends Service With City

Sgt. O. D. Warren of the Murray Police Department completed his service with the department on Monday, March 31, and is the first member of the police force to receive the pension recently established by the City of Murray for the policemen and firemen.

The Murray sergeant became a member of the police force on April 20, 1952, when the late Adolphus Webb was serving as police chief.

During his almost seventeen years of service, Warren has worked under seven Murray police chiefs, Webb, the late Otis Warren, the late Noel McReynolds, Charlie Marr, Burman Parker, Brent Manning, and the present chief, James M. Brown.

In reminiscing about his years on the police force, Sgt. Warren said he remembers many cases and incidents that occurred, but perhaps the one most clear in his mind was on April 24, 1957 when his police chief, the late Noel McReynolds was wounded in the line of duty and later died.

Warren narrowly escaped death as the assailant, who was killed in the gunfire, emptied the powerful 357 Magnum pistol in the old city hall building, wounding McReynolds who died about thirty hours later in the Murray Hospital.

During his later years with the force, Sgt. Warren has been in charge of the repair and upkeep of the parking meters in the city. He has worked closely with Otley Robinson, meter checker for the city; during the past two years.

The retiring policeman was promoted to the rank of sergeant from patrolman about ten years ago.

Warren and his wife, the former Fay McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odie McClure of Hazel Route Two, reside at 1009 Payne Street, Murray.

Sgt. Warren is the son of the late Sam Warren and Frances Alexander Warren. He was reared on the east side of the county and attended school at Sugar Creek, Center Ridge, Liberty, and Flint Valley, all in Calloway County. His father was a farmer.

After Mr. and Mrs. Warren were married, they resided in Detroit, Mich., for a few years before returning to Calloway County where he farmed. In 1950 Warren began employment with the Boatwright Wholesale Company before being named with the Murray Police Force in 1952.

The Warrens have two daughters of Murray Route Two and Mrs. Tommy (Patricia) Guthrie of Hazel. They have two grandchildren, Jimmy Dale Crouse, age four, and Lisa Marie Crouse, age two.

During his almost seventeen years of service, Sgt. Warren has seen many changes in the city, in size and population. The City Municipal building has been built at its present

Letter To Editor

Dear Mr. Williams:

On behalf of the members of the Murray Woman's Club, I want to thank you for the publicity you have given to our recent kidney screening program. The items you printed prior to the program which informed the public about the nature of the testing were most helpful in securing the confidence and cooperation of both parents and children.

We can test on 2304 people and this figure represents about 95% of the total number of students in grades one through six. However, about 40 of these tests were done on adults.

We hope to have final results from Dr. Holland's laboratory next week when the testing is completed. We will release this information as soon as it is available.

Thank you again for giving favorable publicity to this program. We feel that this was an important factor in the tremendous acceptance of the program by the people.

Sincerely,

Mrs. James E. Garrison, 1st V.P. Murray Woman's Club Chairman, Kidney Project

Our Faces Are Red And We Apologize

The Ledger and Times wishes to apologize to Col. Eff Birdsong for the inadvertent "flipping" of a negative in yesterday's issue. Col. Birdsong was pictured along with Governor Nunn and President Harry Sparks of MSU as they saluted while the national anthem was being played.

The printing of the negative on the wrong side caused Col. Birdsong to be pictured saluting with his left hand, in fact the entire picture was reversed.

The reversal of the picture would not have been so noticeable, had not Col. Birdsong been giving the hand salute.

In the printing of dozens of pictures great care has been taken to see that each picture is placed correctly, however an error was made in this instance. The Ledger and Times regrets this error and apologizes to Col. Birdsong.

Had the picture been run correctly it would have appeared as pictured today.

Train Carries Ike To Resting Place At Boyhood Home

By ROBERT P. DALTON HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The train carrying Dwight D. Eisenhower to his final rest clattered across the nation's heartland today and thousands of persons dotted the route for a last goodbye.

Tear-stained, hymn-singing Americans from historic Civil War towns in Virginia and the coal fields and rolling farm country of West Virginia, some waiting through the chilled night, turned out as the 10-car funeral train pulled by three diesel engines headed west to Abilene, Kan., boyhood home of the World War II hero.

Crowds of more than 1,000 turned out in Charleston, W. Va., and Huntington to catch a glimpse of the passing train. At a 10-minute stop to change crews in Huntington, one of the military officials aboard thanked the group for turning out on a cold, misty morning.

"I know the general would have shed a tear if he had been here today," said Col. Clement Riley.

The train was dark with all shades drawn as it pulled out of Huntington and headed for the nearby Kentucky-border almost three hours behind schedule around 6 a.m. EST.

Eisenhower, who died Friday in Washington, will be buried Wednesday in the Kansas town he left 58 years ago to enter West Point, starting a career that carried him to the White House as one of the country's most beloved presidents.

Warmth Surfaces The warmth he evoked in life surfaced again in death as 5,000 persons jammed the railroad depot in Charlottesville, Va., most of them standing silently, some singing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The train slowed to a crawl as it passed through populated areas and was running at least two hours behind schedule.

In White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., about half the community's 2,000 residents waited patiently in 10-degree weather as the train, expected at 11:30 Monday night, finally came in to view at 1:10 a.m. EST today.

Losses Time The train, with the car carrying Eisenhower's body draped in black, left Washington at 6:50 p.m. EST Monday, about

Train Carries Ike To Resting Place At Boyhood Home

It lost more time traveling through stations at eight miles an hour. The train was to arrive in Abilene about 11 p.m. EST tonight.

It was being moved by four different railroad lines. The Chesapeake & Ohio was carrying it from Washington to Cincinnati, where the Baltimore & Ohio takes over for a run to St. Louis. In St. Louis the train was to be moved by the Norfolk & Western to Kansas City and the Union Pacific taking the final run to Abilene.

Eisenhower's body was transported in a gunmetal gray, GI casket borne by baggage car No. 314. Black drapes were hung to create a 7-by-16 foot room. The American flag was placed at the head of the casket and the presidential standard at its side.

Ride In Last Car Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower and other members of the family rode in the last car — the "Old Santa Fe" — the one Eisenhower took to Abilene in 1951 to announce his candidacy for president. The Eisenhowers also used the car, usually assigned to the president of the Santa Fe Railroad, for their winter trips from their farm home in Gettysburg, Pa., to their vacation home in Palm Springs, Calif.

Published today is a feature story by Boyd Wear telling of Murray's beginning in 1843.

NO HELP

BIRKENHEAD, England — "We're already behind schedule and a distraction like that isn't going to help," construction Foreman Jack Parrack complained over a window display next to where his men were working on a $0.6 million tunnel approach.

The department store window display was a shapely Maureen Fennin in a miniskirt and a see-through blouse.

TOP RATING

BRIGHTON, England — The British Broadcasting Corp.'s Radio one club tour around the country is getting a top rating — by trust officers.

Education Officer Pauline Giles said she rounded up six truants waiting outside the theater where the tour was playing and caught another six inside.

The same happened last month when a number of truants were caught where the show was playing in Plymouth.

Lopez Thinks Chisox Could Go All The Way This Year

By JOHN G. GRIFFIN
 UPI Executive Sports Editor

SARASOTA, Fla. UPI — For a gentleman who always speaks quietly, manager Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox can say some pretty electrifying things. Like, "I think we could go all the way."

There are a lot of loud-mouths you know who shout all the time and never say anything as brash as that. Lopez, who has managed the White Sox since 1966, is not only a loud-mouth but he's coming back with virtually the same team.

But Lopez makes his statement calmly and then gives you the reason-pitching.

Lot of Injury
 "Last year we had a lot of injury trouble in our pitching," Lopez points out. Gary Peters, Joe Horlen, and Tommy John, in particular, were hurt and that dropped us way down.

"But all three have been throwing well in spring training and appear to be in good physical condition again," said Lopez. "If the pitching stays sound, I think we could go all the way."

Lopez is not a man you take lightly when he tells you he thinks he has pennant-type pitching. Senior Al has a long record as an excellent judge and handler of pitchers and his record is proven by two pennant victories, in 1954 with the Cleveland Indians and in 1959 with the White Sox, both pennants, achieved in the long days of Yankee domination, were marked by Lopez' adroit mastery of pitching.

Key Man

Southpaw Peters is perhaps the key man. After successive seasons of 19, 20, 12, and 16 victories, Peters dropped to a 4-13 record in 1968 when he was plagued by injuries. If Peters, at 31, can return to his previous form, the Sox should be 10 games better for that alone.

Horlen, a 31-year-old Texan, had a fine 2.37 earned run average last year but dropped from 19 wins to 12. John, 25, had a 1.98 era and, with a 10-5 record, was on his way to a splendid year in '68 when an injury in August put him out for the rest of the season.

Lopez' fourth starter could be 23-year-old Sammy Ellis, who was acquired from California where he had a 9-10 record. Ellis was a 22-game winner in 1965 with Cincinnati.

Knuckleballer Wilbur Wood is the ace of a good bullpen. In 1968 he was brilliant with 13 wins, 13 saves, and a 1.87 era.

May Have Pitching

So Lopez may have, as he believes, pitching, and old Connie Mack used to insist that pitching was 90 per cent of the game. But pitchers have to get some batting support and the White Sox were dead last in the league last year in the production of runs, those little items without which it is impossible to win.

So where are the runs going to come from this year? The answer, if there is one, is that they will have to come from approximately the same batters as the Sox had last year.

At first base, says Lopez, will be either veteran Pete Ward or rookie Gail Hopkins, "depending on who hits." Ward batted .216 last year, never has matched his .290 plus and 20-homer plus totals of his first two years, 1963 and '64. Hopkins hit .324 with 22 homers at Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League.

Second baseman Sandy Alomar, a slick fielder, hit .254 and shortstop Luis Aparicio, who will be 35 next month, hit .264. Rookie Bill Melton, who hit .266 in a brief trial last year, is in the lead for third base.

New Division

The Sox find themselves in the A. L.'s new Western Division this year, and that contains two "expansion teams," Kansas City and Seattle. But it also contains Minnesota, California, and Oakland, all of which could be tough.

Lopez says he thinks the White Sox have enough of "the other things," meaning hitting and fielding, to battle his opposition if the pitching is as good as he hopes.

The gay senior isn't bragging, which never was his style, he's simply saying the White Sox "could" go all the way, and despite the evidence which seems to say Chicago hasn't got the hitting to make it, other teams would be well advised to listen to the quiet words of a quiet man.

WINS SILVERSTONE

SILVERSTONE, England — Veteran Jack Brabham over a rain-slicked course at an average speed of 107 mph Sunday to win the Silverstone International Formula 1 race.

Brabham, who will be 43 Wednesday, crossed the finish line with a dead engine 100 yards ahead of Austria's Jochen Rindt.

SPRING PRACTICE

WEST POINT, N. Y. — Coach Tom Cahill will open spring practice Saturday for his Army football team that will return 16 lettermen.

The Cadets, who will drill five times a week until May 3, will play their first game against New Mexico Sept. 20.

Major League Roundup

Ollie Brown doesn't want to hurt Buzzy Bavasi's reputation as a shrewd judge of baseball talent.

He won't either, if he keeps hitting the way he did Monday. Bavasi, the former right-hand man for Walter O'Malley of the Dodgers who became the boss of the new San Diego team, gambled on Brown as the Padres' first choice in the expansion draft even though Brown hit only .232 in 40 games with the Giants last year and spent a stretch in the minor leagues.

But the 25-year-old right-handed hitter looked like the kind of hitter Bavasi thinks he'll be for the Padres when he clubbed two homers Monday as the Padres were downing the Chicago Cubs 5-3.

Only five games were played Monday because of the funeral services for former President Eisenhower and two of those were curtailed by darkness.

In the other four games, the New York Mets blanked Cincinnati 3-0, the Chicago White Sox topped the St. Louis Cardinals 5-3 and the Oakland A's drubbed the California Angels 7-1 in a game called after the top of the sixth inning by darkness.

The Cleveland Indians and the San Francisco Giants played to a 5-5 tie in a game called after eight innings by darkness.

Five games, the Braves vs. the Tigers, the Phils vs. the Twins, the Pirates vs. the Orioles, the Red Sox vs. the Senators and the Yankees vs. the Royals, were canceled. The five games that were played started after the funeral services for president Eisenhower had ended, according to the guidelines set down by baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

HARVEY MISSES GAMES
 ST. LOUIS — Veteran defenseman Doug Harvey will miss the first few games of the Stanley Cup playoffs, it was announced by the St. Louis Blues Monday.

Harvey, who suffered a head injury, will not be in the line-up when the Blues entertain the Philadelphia Flyers Wednesday night.

HENRY TRIUMPHS
 MIAMI — Rookie Bunky Henry won the $200,000 National Airlines Open golf tournament despite two bogeys and a triple bogey on his final round.

Murray State Bombs Purdue

Mike Fitzgerald, Bill Cole, and Bob Paclacka provided the punch, and Rodney Pryer held the visitors to only 3 hits in his 8 innings of work, as the Murray State baseball team won the series opener with Purdue yesterday, 11 to 2.

The "Breds" opened the scoring in the second when Paclacka picked up his first of three doubles for the afternoon, scoring Holman and Cole, both of whom had singled. After moving to third on an infield out, Paclacka scored the third run of the inning on a sacrifice fly by Pryer.

The Racers added two more runs in the fourth on a single by Holman, a stolen base, Paclacka's second double, and a RBI single by Mike Fitzgerald. Two runs were added in the fifth on a 2-RBI single by Bill

Calumet Farms Will Not Race In Kentucky

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) —

The flashing devil red silks of Calumet Farms will not be seen at Kentucky race tracks this spring and perhaps not for some time.

Mrs. Gene Markey, owner of Calumet and 1968 Kentucky Derby purse winner Forward Pass, said Monday the Kentucky State Racing Commission did not change its rule about the administering of illegal medications to horses in time to suit her.

"I said I would never race at Kentucky again until they change these rules," Mrs. Markey said from her Miami residence. "They didn't change the racing rules in time for us to nominate for the stakes and make plans to come there Kentucky."

Calumet, one of the state's most prominent farms, has owned a record seven Kentucky Derby winners.

BO RELEASED

ST. LOUIS — Bo Belinsky, the playboy pitcher who once threw a no-hitter, was released by the St. Louis Cardinals Monday and sent back to the Houston Astro organization.

Belinsky, who has toiled in the minors since his early success in the American League several years ago, complained that he had not been given enough work this spring.

Dear Abby

Visiting Rights Bother Divorcee

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am divorced and remarried. My ex-husband and I have a 6-year-old daughter and I have two younger children by my present husband.

My ex-husband has been in Viet Nam for two years. He has been living with a Vietnamese prostitute for eight months, and recently wrote that he's marrying her and bringing her here as she's expecting a baby in three months.

Now I don't care WHO he marries or what her nationality is, but my "ex" has visiting rights, and Abby, when I think about my daughter being around this prostitute, I want to throw up. My husband and his new wife will want to take my child for week-ends, and I can't stop them because that's what it says in the decree.

I can't see how a woman who has been a prostitute can ever change. Please tell me if I am wrong. What do you think I should do? Tell me and I shall try to abide by it. A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Cool it. You know too little about the Vietnamese "prostitute" to condemn her in absentia and at such a long distance. Give your ex and your successor a chance. Then act, if necessary.

DEAR ABBY: What advice have you for a 22-year-old girl who's pretty and smart, but lives in a small town with snobbish people who won't let her forget that she lives on the wrong side of the tracks?

NO FUTURE

DEAR NO: The next time the train comes thru, get on it.

DEAR ABBY: If there isn't an organization called "RELIGIOUS FANATICS ANONYMOUS" there ought to be. I am serious. My husband is a real nut on religion. Now I go to church, too, and I think everyone should go once a week, but my husband LIVES at church. He runs there before he goes to work every morning, and when he comes home late from work I know he's stopped in at church again. I wonder what he has done that his conscience bothers him so much. This man has got to be the world's champion sinner.

I keep telling him he is going to wear his knees out, and he says I'm nagging him.

What do you say, Abby? How much church is enough?

FANATIC'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Let each man decide for himself how much "church" is enough.

DEAR ABBY: Hooray for the woman who admitted her error in naming her son "Junior" and had to suffer through the "Big Bob" and "Little Bob" syndrome.

Now, what can be done about people who mark their progeny with William Williams, John Johns, Robert Roberts, Ina Ford, or Ina Anything.

Oh, well, one of my ancestors, Temperance Cooper married Pleasant Loving, which didn't seem to hinder future development of the line. Who knows what another union like that could accomplish? Yours truly,

CAROLYN COOPER IVEY

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69709, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

FOR ABBY'S BOOKLET, "HOW TO HAVE A LOVELY WEDDING," SEND $1.00 TO ABBY, BOX 69709, LOS ANGELES, CAL. 90069.

Erwin-James Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. James Euel Erwin of Hazel Route One announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sheila Mae, to George Morgan James, son of Mrs. William M. James of Birmingham, Alabama, and the late Mr. James.

Miss Erwin is a Senior at Calloway County High School where she will graduate in May. She plans to attend Murray State University.

Mrs. Willard Alls Elected President Beta Sigma Phi

Mrs. Willard Alls was elected president of the Gamma Gamma chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at the regular meeting held at the Community Center with Mrs. Wallace Ford, retiring president, presiding.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Stephen Rose, vice-president; Mrs. John Hina, recording secretary; Mrs. Ray Sims, corresponding secretary; Miss Suzanne McDougal, treasurer; Mrs. Kenny Thomas, extension officer.

Following the business session a surprise baby shower was held for Mrs. John Mikulick as was held for Mrs. Stephen Rose the week before. Both received the traditional baby blanket with all of the sorority sister's names embroidered on it.

Those present were Mesdames as Willard Alls, Isaac Adams, Larry Contri, John Emerson, Wallace Ford, Fred Gardner, Bennie George, Robert Goodridge, John Hina, John Mikulick, Gerry Requarth, Stephen Rose, Ray Sims, John Thresher, Kenny Thomas, Dan Wall, and John Fritz, Miss Jean Cooper, and Miss Suzanne McDougal. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Alls, Mrs. Goodridge, and Miss Cooper.

Ken-Bar Reopening Set Today

GILBERTSVILLE, Ky., March 31—Ken-Bar Inn, closed since last December, is scheduled to reopen Tuesday with plans calling for the immediate start of a $300,000 improvement program.

The 144-room complex, the largest motel in Western Kentucky, became the property last week of AMC Development Co., Union City, Tenn. AMC is being backed financially by the Airport Machinery Corp., Union City, headed by Murray Fussell, Martin, Tenn.

Fussell said tentative plans call for the conversion of the motel into a year-round resort area complete with a large indoor pool, skating rink and health club facilities.

The pool and skating rink will be enclosed in a 140-by-150-foot area to the rear of the main building, Fussell said. He added preliminary work by architects and decorators will start this week.

location at South 5th and Poplar Streets from its former location on the south side of the square.

Sgt. Warren said he had enjoyed his work with the Police Force and wishes Chief Brown and his force success in the future. He said he would miss talking and visiting with the people of Murray as he made his rounds of the parking meters meeting old friends and acquaintances.

The sergeant has been suffering from arthritis for the past few years. He will celebrate his 60th birthday on May 6 of this year.

The Ledger & Times congratulates Sgt. Warren on his years of service with the Police Force and wishes him much happiness as he begins his retirement years.

SEEN & HEARD

picture comes out right. If you turn the negative over, the picture is exactly reversed. You get the same effect when looking in the mirror. There are any number of opportunities to make mistakes in this world. And, we must say, we have taken advantage of most of them.

Some parents assume a holy look when they hear about the escapades of the children of other people. Their children would never do anything like that they think. Then comes the jolting day when their children do pull some idiotic stunt and they are met with frustration, heartache and all the rest trying to figure out why and there is no answer. Of all relationships, the relationship with our own children sometimes is the oddest. We leave out one factor: they are people with brains of their own, thoughts of their own, wills of their own and at the same time lack the judgment which their parents, through years of trial, error and mistakes, have finally achieved.

The most part of feeling good is mental outlook. That is, unless you have a broken leg, a heavy operation or something on that order. Even then, a good mental outlook will help things.

As the pressures grow for shorter work weeks, more leisure time is seen. This will bring on problems many do not have at this time. When a fellow is busy at his work, he does not have time to think about himself, his ailments, situation or lot in life. Leisure time will give him more time to dwell on things of this nature and we can see an upturn in the future, in the need for psychiatric care for more people.

When a fellow is rooting for a living, the most important thing is paying the rent, the TV payment, and getting groceries. We doubt if there was much mental illness back in colonial times.

We are fortunate here in Murray that we have a Mental Health Center, well staffed, prepared to handle a variety of problems.

If you are having difficulty, or a member of the family is having difficulty, check with the local Mental Health Center. They handle things like counseling for children, adults, family counseling, bad mental outlooks, mental illness, plus several others.

readers, who will be seated at a long table in front of the Chancel. As each man finishes his scripture portion, he will extinguish the candle in front of him until, at the end, there is but one large candle lit, representing Christ. It is removed and the sanctuary is in total darkness, symbolizing the death and burial of Jesus.

The large candle is brought back into the sanctuary, symbolizing the apparent victory of the power of death and darkness over our Lord in His Passion, but actually of their failure to overthrow Him who is the truth, and who is the Light of the world, Rev. William M. Porter said.

This Service Thursday evening at 7:30 is open to the public. Enter in silence, partake of the Communion reverently (regardless of your Church affiliation), worship meaningfully, depart in silence, having prepared for the deeper meaning of Easter, Rev. Porter said.

held in Meeting Room 3 and 4 in the Waterfield Student Union Building on the campus of MSU. Refreshments will be served. The coordinators of the society ask that all those coming please notify them prior to that evening.

Woods assumed his present position, which also includes duties as chief advisor to the Young Historians of Kentucky, in December, 1966. He is a descendant of Archibald Woods, who in 1775 built the first cabin outside the stockade at Fort Harrod in the settlement of Central Kentucky. He has been an active member of the Kentucky Historical Society since 1950 and has been active in several restoration projects including Morgan's Row in Harrodsburg and Shakerstown at nearby Pleasant Hill.

In 1959-60, Woods received the outstanding local President award of the Kentucky Jaycees, and in the following year, he was named the outstanding officer of the state Jaycees. He is also a past Vice President of this state organization.

He graduated from the University of Kentucky with a degree in Education. Previously he had played football at the University of South Carolina and St. Mary's College of California.

He has been a business man, school teacher, governmental executive, and a consultant on tuberculosis control. A deacon and an elder at various times in the Harrodsburg Presbyterian Church, he has also been active in Red Cross work and in the Harrodsburg Rotary Club.

Mr. Woods will be of great assistance in the organization of the historical society here in Calloway County. At the present time there are over 90 such societies in Kentucky and this will be the fourth west of the Tennessee River.

Woods said, "County historical societies should encompass all local history but should not undertake projects which due to their immensity could break the spirit of the group. The historical society here has broader aims and objectives than say a genealogical society which is composed of active and producing members can also be a vital county organization."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Institutional trading, though "less negative" recently, is "not yet positive," according to Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis. "Funds are still selling more than they are buying," the firm says, with some of the recent improvement possibly due to "window-dressing" prior to the March quarter rather than to any rising level of confidence.

The bullish argument for a "reasonably good rally" finds support in the fact that many leading stocks have held at good levels over the past few weeks. Tessel, Patrick & Ostrau says, "Now that some glamourous are once again making new highs," the firm says, the likelihood of an overall upturn from current levels has "brightened considerably."

E. F. Hutton sees a hopeful sign in the swing by odd-lot traders back to the sell side in recent sessions. Over the near term, the market may be looking up, with the increased pessimism of the odd-lotter a bullish factor, the firm observes.
